

National Executive Board
Proposed Changes to the Constitution and By-laws #2

2. Page 13, Duties of Officers: Currently Reads: The National Service Officer, Article II- Duties of Officers (g) The National Service Officer shall perform such duties as prescribed by the National Executive Board, which includes, but is not limited to: proper maintenance of membership applications; obtaining official information not supplied by applicants; serve as custodian of all records of interest to the organization; handle all supplies and jewelry account of the organization; serve as hostess/manager of headquarters.

Page 13, Duties of Officers: Proposed Change: The National Service Officer, Article II- Duties of Officers (g) The National Service Officer shall perform such duties as prescribed by the National Executive Board, which includes, but is not limited to: management of all electronic and hardcopy membership and memorial information, processing of electronic and hardcopy communications pertaining to the interest of the organization, oversees all supplies and jewelry accounts, assists with all AGSM, Inc., events and may serve as the hostess and manager of headquarters at the discretion of the National Executive Board.